

Recently students from Government Polytechnic College, Gandhinagar visited PDPU IIC to learn about incubation culture, and how incubation centre can help them in developing their ideas and in creation of successful venture. They also learned about how PDPU IIC as an incubator functions and also met some of the student startups.

