

Report

on

Web Designing: A way towards Entrepreneurship

Held on:06/09/2018

Objective:

The main objective of this training program is to make the aspiring engineers acquainted with ideation to execution of product design to help them in real time product designing from the root idea.

- Execution with respect to Website Requirement
- Systematical Action plan
- Managing an extra large Project
- Execution Tactics

Analysis of execution

Total 31 students participated in the workshop who took the advantages of various topics discussed in the workshop. During workshop they learnt overall industrial scenario and ideation and execution techniques. These kinds of workshops are meant to make the students analyze and ideate in carrying out various projects in association with respective industries.

Glimpse of the web designing:

