

i.Fest'24 Event Details

● Fizz Buzz and Fizz Buzz Jr

It is a coding event, where the participants will have to code their way through demanding algorithmic questions. The individual who is able to bring the most efficient solution the earliest gets the prize.

● RepoReboot

The participants will be given a theme before the event (the time will be sufficient enough for the participants). They can create one-of-a-kind websites or apps (web, mobile, tablet, desktop) based on the subject, present them at the event, and optimize this opportunity.

● CryptoTrade

This is an app-based simulated trading event of real-life cryptocurrencies. The event will be live for three days where the participants will be given some amount of virtual money to start with, and the prices would move according to the behavior of the market.

● i.Ganith

i.Ganith is a math-based quiz event. It will have advancing levels with increasing difficulty, which will test the mathematical and cognitive skills of the participants. The one with the highest score at the end wins.

● Chess64

This will be an elimination-based tournament of chess, where participants will be paired randomly in the initial rounds and have to capture the opponent's king to advance.

i.Fest'24 Event Details

● i.Relay

In a coding relay, a team of 3 takes turns coding, with each participant continuing where the previous teammate left off. Working within a time limit, the team must collaborate effectively to complete the solution using their skills and creativity.

● i.Papyrus

In this research-based event, participants will dive into information, conduct research, and present their innovative findings to the judges.

● i.Bot

This is like a racing game, where the participants will design their robots that have the capacity to cover maximum distance in the shortest possible time. But the tracks are going to be adventurous, with twists, turns, and obstacles.

● i.Quiz

i.Quiz is a tech-based quiz with mind-boggling questions. It'll have multiple levels, and as the participants climb up the ladder, the difficulty will be increased. The team with the most points at the end wins.

● RoboClash

This event will include a war between self-designed robots. The participants will engineer their robot to defend itself and destroy the opponents' in the fight.

● Fun Events

Apart from all the major events, there are various fun events going on during the whole fest. These include Open Mic, Tech Feuds, Discussions, and many more.

i.Fest'24 Event Details

● Catch The Flag

In this event, participants will be given a piece of code. They would have to work their way through the code attentively and flag the hidden bugs to win.

● Reverse Coding

Reverse Coding is an event where the participants are given test cases of a pre-compiled code from which they have to guess the question of the code and write the code in an optimized manner.

● BlindC

BlindC is a coding event in which participants have to write the solution of the questions in C language where monitor screens will be turned off.

● i.Prompt

i.Prompt is an event in which participants will be given some images and they have to generate similar image using text-to-image generator AI tools by writing appropriate prompts.

● i.OHunt

This event will cover tricky yet interesting questions, mysterious puzzles, and riddles. With each correct answer the participants get, they need to add it to the URL to get to the next question. It will be fun to find the smartest and quickest of all participants who would reach the final site.

● i.Ride

This is a slow cycling event wherein there will be 3 rounds. There will be different conditions and tasks in each round. There will be eliminations in each round which will bring us the best three who will outsmart everyone with their Balancing skills.

i.Fest'24 Event Details

● i.Clash

To give a feel and surge of adrenaline just like when one plays video games. Then this is the event one has been looking forward to! We provide an extremely competitive gaming environment where one would play their favourite games.

● i.Cube

This is for cubing enthusiasts, those into solving the world's favourite challenge, the Rubik's cube. Show us how your fingers move mechanically when you get a cube.

● i.Capture

This theme-based photography event invites participants to submit entries captured on any device. Winners will be chosen based on judges' criteria and student votes.

● SellOut

This event enhances students' persuasion skills. Participants must sell a specific item or service to judges, and those with the best sales pitch will win!

● CineCraft

"CineCraft: The Ultimate Reel-Making Showdown" is a dynamic competition where filmmakers of all levels can shine. They would craft captivating short reels and showcase their storytelling Finesse.

● Treasure Hunt

A secret treasure expedition through the mysterious territory of campus. Dare to unveil the treasures behind the hints.