

Event Report

YIP UNICEF awareness session at Bhuj & Kutch

Date: 16th December 2024 & 17th December 2024

Venues: GEC Bhuj and Kutch University

The Young Innovators Platform (YIP), engaged educators, students, and innovators to cultivate a mindset of creativity and problem-solving. The program aimed to empower young individuals to address pressing real-world issues with innovative approaches.

Event Highlights

1. Session at GEC Bhuj

Dr. Tushar Panchal, Group CEO of GTU Ventures, delivered an inspiring talk, shedding light on the importance of fostering a culture of innovation and how students can contribute to societal change through innovative thinking.

2. Session at Kutch University

Continuing his impactful guidance, Dr. Panchal conducted an engaging session that focused on practical approaches to problem-solving and the integration of innovation into daily life and educational practices.

Concluding Remarks

The YIP was a significant milestone in nurturing young innovators. The event, with its sessions at GEC Bhuj and Kutch University, provided participants with the tools and motivation to pursue innovative endeavors. Dr. Tushar Panchal's insightful sessions inspired attendees to take proactive steps toward creating a sustainable future through innovation.

This initiative has reinforced the commitment to empowering youth and integrating innovation into the educational framework, leaving a lasting impact on all who participated.

