

Government Polytechnic, Dahod

S.S.I.P. Cell

A Report on the Celebration of World Entrepreneurship Day

Dt.21/08/2023

The Student Startup and Innovation Policy Cell of the institute organized a seminar to celebrate of World Entrepreneurship Day on Dt.21/08/2023, Monday in Seminar Hall, New Drawing Hall, G. P. Dahod, from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM.

In the beginning of the seminar, Mr. D. J. Kandpal, Lecturer in Civil Engineering Department threw light on the young entrepreneurs of the India. He motivated students to become a successful entrepreneur. He discussed about invention, innovation and startups.

Dr. P. V. Singh, Coordinator of S.S.I.P. Cell stressed on the importance of innovation, entrepreneurs and startups for the sustainable development on the nation. He discussed of science and technology in ancient India. He focused on the status of mathematics, science, and medical science in ancient India. He discussed the scientific works of some Indian scientists.

Total 189 students and 6 faculties attended this event.

The photographs of the said event are as follows:

