Details of Activity:	One Day Interactive Talk on recent initiative of NSDC to provide “Opportunities for International Placements – To Aspirants of Young India”
Outcome:	India is a young nation with ~65% of its population below the age of 35 years. This demographic dividend presents an opportunity that can be leveraged to create a high-quality skilled workforce for the rest of the world, especially those nations which have an ageing or declining national population. To cater to the global workforce demand, NSDC actively pursues global partnerships with governments and businesses with the aim of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Promoting global mobility,• Strengthening the Indian skilling ecosystem, and• Sharing of knowledge with other developing & developed economies. NSDC, along with Ernst & Young (EY) has conducted the ‘Global Skill Gap Study’. The study showcases the in-depth analysis of the global workforce markets with prime focus on leveraging the opportunities to the benefit of Indian workforce. The study highlights nations that would face workforce shortages in the foreseeable future and maps out the corresponding opportunities that these shortages present for the Indian workforce.
