Unitedworld School of Business, in association with Karnavati Innovation and Incubation Foundation (KIIF), Innovation and Incubation Center (IIC), and Student Startup and Innovation Policy (SSIP), organized a session on "How to Plan for Start-up: Legal & Ethical Steps." The session featured Mr. Sagar Patil, Founder of School of Skills and Co-founder of Dgeasy Pvt Ltd, who shared valuable insights on the legal and ethical aspects of planning for a start-up.

The session covered various topics, including:

1. Legal Framework for Start-ups: Mr. Sagar Patil discussed the legal aspects that entrepreneurs need to consider when establishing a start-up. He provided insights on business registration, intellectual property rights, contracts, and compliance with relevant laws and regulations.
2. Ethical Considerations: The session highlighted the importance of ethical practices in the start-up ecosystem. Mr. Sagar Patil emphasized the significance of maintaining transparency, integrity, and social responsibility while building and operating a start-up.
3. Planning Strategies: Participants learned about effective planning strategies for start-ups, including market research, identifying target audiences, developing a business plan, and setting achievable goals. Mr. Sagar Patil shared practical tips and best practices for successful start-up planning.

Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the legal and ethical considerations involved in the start-up journey. The session facilitated knowledge sharing, provided practical guidance, and motivated aspiring entrepreneurs to plan their start-ups effectively while adhering to legal and ethical standards.
