Activity Details:

Parul Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (PIPER) in association with Parul Innovation and Entrepreneurship Research Centre (PIERC) had organized a Workshop on 'Decoding Startups and Entrepreneurship: Escalating Career of Budding Innovators' by Mr. Hutesh Baviskar, Incubation Manager, PIERC. The session was systematically focussed on the real world problems and the strategies to overcome them through innovative approach and critical thinking. Mr. Hutesh also emphasized upon various Start-ups existing in Health Care and EduTech sector, performing well and reaching heights that could be a motivation to the budding minds.

The Start-up ecosystem developed and promoted by PIERC and supported by Ministry of Education and various Government organizations was a key point of attraction for all the students. They were also inculcated with the Entrepreneurial opportunities in other segments of Indian economy, be it Agriculture or Sustainable Development Goals promoted by the United Nations. Mr. Hutesh with his words and experience had set a benchmark to promote a culture of Ideation in the classroom and convert the ideas into successful start-ups through mentorship. The Workshop was a wonderful learning for the students willing to contribute through Innovative thinking and practising Entrepreneurship.

Benefits in terms of learning/Skill/Knowledge obtained:

- Brainstorming and professional development for a successful Entrepreneurial journey
- Provides the opportunity to start one's own venture and contribute to the Indian Economy
- Encourages problem solving with Innovative approach
