

Name of the Program : Student Startup and Innovation Program (SSIP)-Cross Interaction
Date : 18/01/2024

Department : -- Rural Economics

Coordinator – Dr. Nasheman Bandoorkwala

Number of participants – 50 (Economics) + 16(Library Science)

The activity was held as a part of student Startup and Innovation Program (SSIP). Dr. Neepa Shah, from Computer department, Gujarat Vidyapith was invited as a expert. Madam was formally invited by Dr. Nasheman Bandoorkwala, who is the Department of Rural Economics coordinator. Dr Manjula Dabhi also attended the progra., Dr. Nepa Shah talked about the objectives of SSIP and how new ideas (novel ideas) can be put up as PoC (Proposal of Concept) and can be taken further as a complete project. Dr. Neepa Shah also informed students about poster presentation competition. The program started at 1.30pm and was closed by 2.40pm. The venue was Classroom 101 of the Department of Rural Economics

