

Report on One Day Program of
“INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS (IPR) & ITS COMMERCIALIZATION” ON
02nd March 2024

Government Polytechnic Bhuj organised a one-day seminar on "Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) & Its Commercialization" on March 2nd 2024, in the auditorium hall. The dignitaries on the Dias were Dr. G.V.Lakhani (I/C Principal, GP Bhuj), Dr. Jayvir Shah (Academic Co-ordinator, Veerayatan College). The program coordinated by Mr. E U Ghanchi. The seminar focused on IPR policies & its process. The program started at 10.30 a.m. with the welcome address by Mr. D B Lokwani. In this event faculty and students of Government Polytechnic Bhuj were invited.

Opening remarks and introduction of the program were given by Dr. G V Lakhani. He highlighted the importance of IPR. He also highlighted society's need for IPR. He welcomed subject expert and expressed his gratitude to him.

Dr. Jayvir Shah, Academic Coordinator at Veerayatan Institute of Engineering, talked about the importance of IPR in innovation. He also talked about how to get intellectual property rights and how to generate income from that. He also mentioned the recent scenario for India in IPR. After that a question- and- answer session were conducted.

In this event total 222 students are participated. In this event participated students were encouraged by giving Kit (pen, pad and folder) and snack. Expert felicitated by institute's principal and vote of thanks given by Mr. D B Lokwani. The program wrapped up around 12:30p.m.