The Students Startup and Innovation Policy Cell (SSIP Cell) of B & B Institute of Technology organized an Elocution Competition on the theme "Startup & Innovation" on the 26th of August, 2023. This competition aimed to foster a spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship among the students, encouraging them to articulate their ideas and perspectives on the startup ecosystem and innovative practices.

Objectives

- To inspire and motivate students to think creatively and innovatively.
- To provide a platform for students to express their ideas and thoughts on startups and innovation.
- To enhance public speaking skills and confidence among the participants.
- To promote the significance of entrepreneurship and innovation in today's economy.

Participation

The competition was open to all students of B & B Institute of Technology. A total of 30 students registered for the event, out of which 24 were shortlisted based on their initial proposals and abstracts. The selected participants represented various disciplines and brought diverse perspectives to the competition.

Event Proceedings

Inauguration Ceremony:

The event commenced with an inaugural address by Dr. K. M. Makwana, Principal of B & B Institute of Technology. He emphasized the importance of innovation and entrepreneurship in shaping the future and encouraged students to take active participation in such events.

The keynote speech was delivered by Prof. Vinay Pandya, alumnus of the institute, who shared his experience and insights into the startup world.

Competition Rounds:

The competition was structured into two rounds:

Preliminary Round: Each participant was given 5 minutes to present their speech on "Startup & Innovation". The panel of judges evaluated the speeches based on content, originality, delivery, and overall impact.

Final Round: The top 10 participants from the preliminary round advanced to the final round. Here, they were required to delve deeper into specific aspects of startups or innovations, answering questions from the judges and audience.

Judging Panel:

The judges for the event were:

Prof. Nayan Patel, Assistant Professor, P. M. Patel Arts College.

Rt. Prof. Vinay Pandya, Science & Hum. Dept. (BBIT)

Prof. Joseph Soni, Lecturer, Mechanical Engg. Dept., BBIT

Results and Awards:

The winners were announced at the end of the final round. The judging criteria included clarity of thought, originality, persuasive ability, and presentation skills. All participants received certificates of participation, and the winners were awarded trophies and cash prizes.

Conclusion

The Elocution Competition on "Startup & Innovation" was a resounding success, providing a vibrant platform for students to showcase their innovative ideas and entrepreneurial spirit. The event not only highlighted the potential of the young minds at B & B Institute of Technology but also reinforced the institute's commitment to fostering a culture of innovation and startup thinking. The SSIP Cell plans to organize more such events in the future to continue nurturing the entrepreneurial ecosystem within the campus.
