Venue: Karnavati University Campus

Time: - 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM

Number of Participants: - 204

Unitedworld School of Law along with IIC, UNICEF KIIF and SSIP organized a workshop titled “Investing in Youth” for creating a career opportunity in Entrepreneurship and Innovation.

The primary objective of the workshop was to equip young people with the necessary knowledge, skills, and resources to become proactive agents of change in their communities through their innovations.

By providing a platform for dialogue, learning, and collaboration, the speakers aimed to foster a generation of youth leaders who are capable of addressing pressing global challenges and contributing meaningfully to sustainable development.

The workshop featured a diverse range of activities designed to engage participants and facilitate meaningful discussions.

The speakers:

- Mr.Aum Kotwal
- Dr. Jaimin Vasa
- Mr. Utsav Parmar
- Ms. Rutuja Patel

From the field of education, healthcare and Social impact based startups delivered insightful presentations on the importance of investing in youth and the role young people can play in driving positive change by becoming entrepreneurs.

Participants had the opportunity to participate and connect with like-minded individuals, mentors, and potential collaborators. These connections were instrumental in fostering a sense of community and support among young students.
