

Celebration of Vikas Saptah

Report on awareness program on Student Startup and Innovation Policy and IPR organized by e-Cell/SSIP

Under the celebration of Vikas Saptah, on 9th October, the e-Cell/SSIP of VGEC Chandkheda organized SSIP (Student Startup and Innovation Policy) and IPR Awareness Program to educate students about entrepreneurship, innovation, and the importance of intellectual property rights. The program aimed to foster a culture of innovation among students and to equip them with knowledge about protecting their ideas through patents. Students were introduced to the SSIP initiative and its support for aspiring entrepreneurs. Students learned about the significance of patents in safeguarding intellectual property. The expert for this session was Dr. V. S. Purani, Principal VGEC-Chandkheda. He has discussed how start-ups can help the student to be successful and how an innovative idea can be nurtured through the SSIP policy and financial help assisted through SSIP policy. He has also elaborated on various start-up examples and various types of patents.
