

Gujarat 4.0: Pitch & Fund

10-11-2024

CrAdLE

CrAdLE, in collaboration with SwiftSeed Ventures, organized a virtual pitching event spotlighting Gujarat's most innovative startups in Manufacturing and Industry 4.0. This initiative aimed to provide a platform for entrepreneurs to present their transformative ideas to a distinguished panel of investors, fostering connections between innovation and funding.

Out of over 40 applications, 10 startups were shortlisted for the final pitch round. These startups showcased their groundbreaking solutions, reflecting the entrepreneurial spirit of Gujarat. The investor panel featured esteemed professionals, including:

- Mahavir Pratap Sharma (Chair of TiE India Angels & Rajasthan Angel Innovators Network)
- Sanjoy Sarma (Partner - Alliances, India Accelerator)
- Sahil Kukreja (Associate Director, Trifecta Capital)
- Abhishek Kakkar (VP Investments, IAN Group)
- Mandeep M Singh (Board Member, Investor, and Advisor)

The event was further enhanced by SwiftSeed Ventures' commitment to nurturing startups. They offered $10,000 in cloud credits to all shortlisted startups, providing a critical boost for these ventures to scale and innovate further.

This pitching event exemplified CrAdLE's dedication to fostering an entrepreneurial ecosystem by connecting startups with key stakeholders and resources, encouraging them to push the boundaries of technology and innovation in India's rapidly evolving industrial sector.
