

Session on Financial Opportunities for Startups & MSMEs

26-10-2024

CrAdLE

CrAdLE EDII successfully organized an insightful online session titled "Financial Opportunities for Startups & MSMEs" on 26-10-2024. The session featured Dr. Harish Kumar Yadav, IES, Assistant Director, Ministry of Finance, Government of India, who brought his extensive expertise in government programs and financial support mechanisms to guide participants.

The session focused on equipping entrepreneurs with essential knowledge about various government schemes and funding programs designed to support startups and MSMEs. Dr. Yadav provided practical insights into accessing government grants, understanding compliance requirements, and leveraging innovative financing models to scale businesses.

Over 80 participants, including startup founders and aspiring entrepreneurs, actively engaged in the live session. The interactive Q&A segment allowed participants to address specific challenges, gaining clarity on available financial avenues and strategies to secure funding.

This session underscored CrAdLE's commitment to empowering startups by bridging the gap between policy frameworks and entrepreneurial execution. By enabling entrepreneurs to navigate the financial landscape effectively, CrAdLE continues to foster a supportive ecosystem for innovation and growth.
