

Report on National Startup day

The National Startup Day event was organized on 16-01-2025 at Government polytechnic, Dahod to celebrate and promote the spirit of entrepreneurship. The objectives of the Event were to discuss government policies, funding opportunities, and support systems for startups.

Mr. A. R. Mahyavanshi, Lecturer in Department of Electrical engineering highlighting the importance of startups in economic development. His address focused on the government's initiatives and the role of innovation in shaping the future. 44 students were present at the event.

The National Startup Day event was a resounding success, fostering innovation and encouraging the growth of the startup ecosystem. The insights shared will contribute to a thriving entrepreneurial culture.

Glimpses of the Event:

