

Report on Organizing

On 25th January 2022 Dr. K. L. Mokariya Head Electrical Engineering Department, And SSIP Coordinator of the institute has delivered a session to Dharampur model school Malampada.

Details of the talk is as follows.

1. Session started with swamiviveknandji quote for young students. From the basic Electricity, fundamental laws to Maintenance of Electrical and Electronics equipments fundamentals and procedure was covered which was in syllabus.

How innovative ideas can be taken at implementation level was explained with below mentioned examples.

- 1 automatic water pumping.
- 2 single phasing preventer
- 3 smart dustbin

How to bring idea to market ,step by step process was covered. In Electronics based projects PCB, Effective soldering, trouble shooting was explained and demonstrated.

With G20 summit going on Environmental Protection and sustainability key aspects were discussed with simple examples.

In students Life how to remove stress, be relax, yog nindra example was demonstrated on school students.

Memory enhancement skills and better reproducing techniques were explained.

How the stage fear can be removed that was demonstrated with inviting school student.

A wonderful cooperation from Principal Dr Varsha Patel, staff and most interesting students participated with great enthusiasm.

This was SSIP, IIC, G20, Azadi kaa Amrut mahotsav session at Malampada model school students from 8 to 12th attended the session.

Around

Details of Participation

200 person have participated in the event

