Details of Activity:	The Faculty of Management at Monark University organized a Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE)–sponsored webinar on “Financial Awareness and Financial Literacy at an Early Age” on 19 November 2025 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The session aimed to equip students with essential knowledge of savings, investments, budgeting, and the importance of early financial planning. The expert speaker from BSE provided practical insights into stock markets, mutual funds, and risk management. Students actively participated and gained valuable awareness of financial discipline.
Outcome:	The webinar significantly improved students’ understanding of financial basics, including budgeting, saving, investing, and risk management. Participants gained clarity on stock market operations and the benefits of early financial planning. The session encouraged students to adopt disciplined financial habits and make informed monetary decisions. Overall, the webinar enhanced financial confidence and motivated learners to explore investment opportunities responsibly.
