Seminar on the Celebration of National Start-up Day under the Aegis of SSIP

1. Introduction:

In alignment with the vision of the Government of Gujarat to foster innovation and entrepreneurship among the youth, the Student Start-up and Innovation Policy (SSIP) was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Government Arts and Commerce College, Jam Khambhaliya. A one-day seminar was organized on the occasion of National Start-up Day on January 16th, 2026. The primary objective of the seminar was to raise awareness about the SSIP scheme, inspire students to think innovatively, and guide them on how to convert their ideas into viable start-ups.

2. Inaugural Session:

The seminar commenced with the traditional welcome of the dignitaries. The program was graced by the presence of Dr. P.R. Chauhan, Principal of the college, who presided over the function. The event was coordinated efficiently by Dr. Kamlesh R. Gojiya.

The chief guest for the occasion was Dr. Ashishkumar Chudasama, Assistant Professor at Government Arts and Commerce College, Jam Khambhaliya. Dr. Chudasama was welcomed with a bouquet and a token of appreciation.

3. Address by the Coordinator:

Dr. Kamlesh R. Gojiya provided a brief overview of the Student Start-up and Innovation Policy (SSIP) initiated by the Education Department, Government of Gujarat. He explained how the policy aims to create an ecosystem for students to explore their entrepreneurial skills by providing financial assistance, mentorship, and institutional support. He encouraged students to look beyond traditional career paths and consider becoming job creators.

4. Keynote Address by the Chief Guest:

The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Ashishkumar Chudasama. His speech focused on the importance of National Start-up Day and the role of youth in building a self-reliant India. He elaborated on various government schemes available for young entrepreneurs and shared inspiring success stories of local start-ups. Dr. Chudasama motivated the students by explaining that every problem in society is a potential business opportunity. He urged them to utilize the resources available under the SSIP policy to develop prototypes and innovative solutions for real-world challenges.

5. Presidential Address:

Dr. P.R. Chauhan, Principal, addressed the gathering and emphasized the role of educational institutions in nurturing the start-up culture. He congratulated the coordinator and the staff for organizing such a timely and relevant seminar. He assured the students that the college management would provide full support to any student with a viable business idea and encouraged them to participate actively in the SSIP initiatives.

6. Participation:

The seminar witnessed an overwhelming response from the student community. A total of 75 students actively participated in the event. The interactive session that followed the speeches saw students asking questions regarding funding, legal procedures, and idea validation.

7. Vote of Thanks:

The program concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by the coordinator, Dr. Kamlesh R. Gojiya, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, the chief guest, the teaching and non-teaching staff, and the students for making the event a grand success.

8. Outcome:

The seminar successfully achieved its goal of spreading awareness about the SSIP policy. It ignited a spark of entrepreneurship among the students and provided them with a clear roadmap to pursue their start-up dreams.
