Activity REPORT

Details of the Event / Activity/ Competition:

As part of the ongoing SSIP and innovation club initiatives at D. K. V. Arts & Science College, Jamnagar, a series of specialized introductory sessions on Introduction to Arduino were conducted in March 2026. Led by Assistant Professor Chirag S. Rajai under the aegis of the SSIP & Innovation Club, these sessions were designed to bridge the gap between theoretical electronics and practical application. The workshop effectively promoted practical learning, innovation, and technical skills among participants.

The sessions were managed by Dr. F. P. Patel
