Elocution Competition

Date: 11/11/25

Brief Report

The Innovation Club, SSIP and Saptdhara jointly organized an Elocution Competition on 11 November 2025 to celebrate National Education Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Minister of Education of independent India. The event was designed to highlight the importance of education in nation building and to inspire students to reflect on the values of knowledge, creativity and leadership.

A total of 31 students participated, including 14 male and 17 female students, who delivered speeches on themes related to education, innovation and social progress. The competition provided a vibrant platform for young minds to showcase their oratory skills, confidence and critical thinking. Participants expressed their views on the role of education in shaping society, the need for inclusive learning opportunities and the vision of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad in promoting literacy and empowerment.

The event was coordinated by Mr Parth S Panchal and Dr Namrata R Umrigar, who ensured smooth organization and active engagement of students. The activity successfully fostered awareness about the significance of education, encouraged public speaking skills and cultivated an entrepreneurial and innovative mindset among participants. Winners were recognized for their outstanding performances, making the event a memorable success.
