ACTIVITY TYPE	Startup talk
DATE & TIME	21/02/2026	Duration	1 Day
SEMESTER	All	No. of participants	420 Students
EXPERT NAME WITH DESIGNATION	Mr.Mukesh Jain – Chief Technology Officer, Capgemini

1. Introduction

A Startup Talk session was organized on 21 February 2026 at the Parul Innovation & Entrepreneurship Research Centre (PIERC), Parul University with the objective of promoting innovation, entrepreneurship, leadership, and technology-driven thinking among students.

The session was conducted by Mukesh Jain, who shared valuable insights on technology, innovation, leadership, digital transformation, and the future of emerging technologies in the startup and corporate ecosystem.

The program aimed to provide students with industry exposure and practical understanding of how technology and innovation are transforming businesses globally. The session also encouraged participants to explore entrepreneurship, problem-solving, and technology-oriented career opportunities.

One of the key highlights of the session was the inspiring message shared by the speaker that an innovation mindset originates from “Jigyasa (Curiosity).” He emphasized that curiosity is the foundation of learning, creativity, experimentation, and breakthrough innovation, encouraging students to continuously question, explore, and innovate.

The interaction created an engaging learning environment where students gained insights into professional growth, innovation-driven thinking, and the importance of continuous learning in today’s rapidly evolving digital world.

2. Objectives of the Program

The key objectives of organizing the Startup Talk were:

- To provide students with insights from an experienced technology leader and industry expert.
- To promote innovation, entrepreneurship, and technology-driven thinking among students.
- To create awareness about emerging technologies and digital transformation.
- To encourage students to explore startup opportunities and innovation-focused careers.
- To bridge the gap between academic learning and industry expectations.
- To motivate students to develop leadership, problem-solving, and communication skills.
- To strengthen the innovation and entrepreneurial ecosystem at PIERC and Parul University.

3. Details of the Program

The Startup Talk was organized on 21 February 2026 at PIERC, Parul University with active participation from 420 students across various disciplines.

During the session, Mukesh Jain shared valuable insights on the role of technology and innovation in shaping the future of businesses and startups. The discussion focused on digital transformation, emerging technologies, leadership, adaptability, and the importance of continuous skill development in the modern professional environment.

The speaker emphasized the significance of innovation-driven thinking, problem-solving abilities, and adaptability in a rapidly evolving technological ecosystem. He particularly highlighted that “Jigyasa (Curiosity)” is the driving force behind innovation and encouraged students to remain curious, ask questions, and continuously explore new ideas and technologies.

The session also highlighted the growing importance of artificial intelligence, digital technologies, and innovation-led business models in the global economy. Students actively participated in the interaction and gained practical exposure to industry perspectives and future opportunities.

The event created an inspiring and interactive environment that enabled students to connect academic learning with real-world industry expectations and entrepreneurial thinking.

4. Learning Outcomes

The program provided several valuable learning experiences for participants:

- Students gained practical insights into technology, innovation, and digital transformation.
- Participants developed a better understanding of emerging technologies and their impact on businesses and startups.
- The session encouraged students to think innovatively and explore entrepreneurship opportunities.
- Students understood the importance of curiosity (“Jigyasa”) as a foundation for innovation and continuous learning.
- Students gained awareness about industry expectations, leadership, and professional growth.
- The interaction enhanced students’ understanding of problem-solving, adaptability, and continuous learning.
- Participants were motivated to develop future-ready skills and innovation-oriented mindsets.

5. Conclusion

The Startup Talk organized on 21 February 2026 at PIERC, Parul University was a highly insightful and inspiring session that successfully connected students with industry expertise and innovation-driven learning.

The interaction with Mukesh Jain provided students with valuable exposure to technology trends, leadership perspectives, and the evolving startup ecosystem. His inspiring message that innovation begins with “Jigyasa (Curiosity)” motivated students to develop a mindset of exploration, creativity, and continuous learning.

Such initiatives play an important role in strengthening the innovation and entrepreneurial culture at PIERC while preparing students to become future-ready professionals, innovators, and leaders.
