The GUIITAR Council organized a mentoring session for 'Start-Ups and Students' on 7th Aug, 2025, from 3:00 to 5:00 P.M. at Conference Room, Ground Floor, Anviksha, GSFC University.

At the outset of the session, Mr. Bhuvan Vyas, Manager-Incubation, GUIITAR Council, welcomed Mr. Nikhil Suthar for the mentoring session. All the participants briefly introduced themselves followed by a brief on their Idea/ Start-Up.

Each Innovator/ Start-Up pitched the idea to Mr. Nikhil and he meticulously discussed with the innovators/ Start-Ups about the key points where the Innovator/ Start-Up can improve and has to keep in mind while pitching to the committee for SSIP/ Gujarat Industrial Policy 2020.

Each Idea of the Innovator/ Start-Up was discussed one-to-one and it was made sure that all the questions from all the participants were addressed and covered in the mentoring session.

11. Learning outcomes of the event:

- The innovator should build a story around their idea so as to keep the Committee Members engrossed in the idea.
- It was advised to all the innovators to keep handy the documents for pertaining to the Validation of the idea and the list of clientele/ LoI/ EoI that they have received from the customers/ probable customers about the idea/ product that they are developing which will build the trust in the Committee and creating an overall positive impact.

- It was suggested to all the participants to present their case confidently and with a positive body language. It was also suggested to be prepared with a detailed analysis of the work that they have already done, and the differentiations of the product. It was also recommended to keep the documents pertaining to the project breakup cost handy in case the Committees ask for the breakup of the amount asked by the Innovator.
- Explore the diverse areas where the Innovators can think of the applications of their ideas and possible collaborations and further validations for the Ideas.

Q. Was there any topic or question you feel was not addressed

- Want to learn more for pitching.

Q. Any Other suggestions?

- Every Start-Up should be guided with such interactive sessions, with such frank opinions, Thank You for his valued time devoted.
- Very good initiative which will help entrepreneurs from now onwards. More such events should be organised to help entrepreneurs prepare comprehensive project proposals at initial stage, and educate them about prevailing funding market conditions.
- Business model canvas
