Expert CS Parth Shah

CS Parth Shah is a qualified Company Secretary with over 12 years of experience in corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and secretarial practices. He has worked extensively with organizations operating in GIFT City (IFSC), specializing in corporate laws, SEBI regulations, RBI/IFSCA compliances, and governance frameworks.

He has been associated with leading financial institutions, including ASK Investment Managers, and currently serves in the compliance domain within GIFT City. He is also an active member of the Gandhinagar (GIFT City) Chapter of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI), contributing to the professional development of the Company Secretary fraternity. His expertise spans corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and the evolving financial ecosystem of India's International Financial Services Centre (IFSC).

Introduction of the Event/ Brief Overview of the Event:

The session on Angel Investment and Venture Capital (VC) Funding was organized to provide participants with practical insights into the startup funding ecosystem and the role of investors in nurturing innovation and entrepreneurship. The event aimed to familiarize students, aspiring entrepreneurs, and startup enthusiasts with the fundamentals of raising capital, understanding investor expectations, and navigating the various stages of business financing.

An interactive question-and-answer session enabled participants to engage with the speaker, clarify their doubts, and gain practical knowledge about investment strategies, regulatory considerations, and opportunities available through India's evolving startup ecosystem.

Overall, the event served as a valuable platform for enhancing entrepreneurial awareness, strengthening financial literacy, and inspiring participants to transform innovative ideas into investment-ready ventures.

Objectives of the Event

- To develop participants' understanding of angel investment and venture capital funding.
- To familiarize aspiring entrepreneurs with the fundraising process, covering business valuation, pitch deck preparation, due diligence, and investor expectations.
- To promote entrepreneurial thinking and innovation by exposing participants to funding opportunities available through India's startup ecosystem, including GIFT City and government-supported initiatives.

Outcomes of the Event

- Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of startup financing, including the differences between angel investors and venture capital firms.
- Participants enhanced their knowledge of investment readiness, learning how to prepare investor pitches, evaluate funding options.
- The session motivated students and aspiring entrepreneurs to explore entrepreneurship, equipping them with practical insights

Short report for Social Media:

A Promising Start to the New Academic Year! ✸

As part of the Induction Program 2026, the School of Business and Management, in association with the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and SSIP Cell, IAR University, organized an inspiring session on "Angel Investment and Venture Capital Funding" for BBA Semester I students.

The expert session by CS Parth Shah introduced students to the fundamentals of startup funding, investor expectations, and entrepreneurial opportunities, encouraging them to think innovatively from the very beginning of their academic journey.

The session served as an excellent start to the new academic year, motivating students to embrace innovation, entrepreneurship, and lifelong learning.
